Participant Grievance Process: Any participant who believes that he or she has been subject to unfair treatment, discrimination, or harassment by a supervisor, manager, co-worker, or a host agency may proceed as follows.

1 Supervisor Level

The participant may discuss the issue with their supervisor (in person, by phone, or in writing) within five calendar days of the incident. The supervisor will respond with a solution or explanation within ten calendar days. If more time is needed, the participant will be notified, but the response must be provided within 30 calendar days of the initial notice date. If the participant finds it difficult to discuss the problem with the supervisor, the participant may proceed directly to number 2.

2. Host Agency Authority

If unresolved, or if the participant is uncomfortable speaking with the supervisor, they may escalate the grievance to the next level of authority at the host agency within five calendar days of the incident or supervisor's response. This authority will respond within ten calendar days. Participants will be provided with the name, title, and contact information of the host agency authority at the time of placement. If the issue remains unresolved, the participant may proceed to Step 3.

3. Bureau Chief Review

Suppose the participant is unable to receive a satisfactory answer or resolution to the problem from the host agency in step 2. In that case, the participant may submit a written grievance to the ALTSD Employment Programs Bureau Chief within five calendar days of receiving the host agency's response. The grievance must include: the nature of the issue, relevant facts, specific actions, and the requested resolution. The Bureau Chief will contact the participant within ten calendar days to gather additional information and will issue a written determination within 20 calendar days of receiving the grievance. If more time is needed, the participant will be notified, but the response must be provided within 30 calendar days of the initial notice.
